Dear Jack:

AT This is in regard to your letter on behalf of [redacted] who was an applicant for employment with the Agency.

AT I have personally reviewed all of the pertinent AT information involving [redacted] application and must conclude that the Agency's decision not to utilize the services of [redacted] was a proper one. Indeed, however, [redacted] should certainly have been given a reasonable explanation as to the Agency's denial of his application and this was not done. At my request, the Director of Personnel will contact [redacted] and arrange for an appropriate Agency official to meet with him to discuss this matter in detail and to explain the decision regarding his application.

ST We regret that this situation has caused [redacted] ST such serious concern and we appreciate your personal interest on his behalf.

Sincerely,

George Bush
